RED LION CHAMBERS

RLC Consulting is a new initiative led by Dame Linda Dobbs. It is a small group of senior and respected individuals including former senior judges, police officers, high level academics, experts in both national and international justice and legal systems and advisors to governments, corporations and other organisations.

Services include judicial and legal training, law and order sector reform, mediation and facilitation, conducting inquests and investigations/inquiries, needs assessments, policy design and implementation, diplomacy skills and public affairs/media guidance. The spread of expertise enables us to offer complete packages for projects and allows you to assemble the team that best fits your needs. You are cordially invited to join us at our launch event, where you can meet members of the team. Find out more about RLC Consulting [\[HERE\]](#)
